

National Task Force to End Sexual & Domestic Violence

For Immediate Release

Contact: Terri Poore, Policy Director, National Alliance to End Sexual Violence, terri@endsexualviolence.org

The National Task Force to End Sexual and Domestic Violence Opposes Limiting the FBI Investigation into Sexual Misconduct Allegations Against Brett Kavanaugh

September 30, 2018

Washington, DC —The National Task Force to End Sexual and Domestic Violence (NTF) appreciates the reopening of the FBI investigation into the nomination of Judge Kavanaugh and strongly opposes limitations in length or scope. All witnesses should be interviewed including Julie Swetnick, Mark Judge, and anyone with relevant information about Judge Kavanaugh's behavior and truthfulness.

Last week, in a letter to Senate leadership, the NTF called for a comprehensive investigation into sexual assault and misconduct allegations against Brett Kavanaugh. Read the full text of our letter HERE.

Terri Poore, Policy Director of the National Alliance to End Sexual Violence, a member organization of the NTF, said:

“Survivors and advocates across the country are watching. The nation deserves a full and serious investigation into sexual assault and misconduct allegations against Judge Kavanaugh including all relevant witnesses before the Senate moves forward. Gone are the days when sexual violence can be swept under the rug.”

###

For more information or interviews contact Terri Poore at terri@endsexualviolence.org or Lisalyn Jacobs at LRJust.Solutions@gmail.com.

The member organizations of the National Task Force to End Sexual and Domestic Violence (NTF) represent millions of survivors of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, the professionals who serve these survivors, the faith organizations that support them, the schools that educate them, and the businesses and communities that care about them throughout the United States and its Territories.
