Position Announcement
Raliance Director

We are seeking an innovative, creative, analytical, and strategic thinker, who is passionate about our mission of ending sexual violence in one generation and can navigate the intersections of corporate culture and needs with the expertise of a complex nonprofit collaborative. The ideal candidate enjoys solving complex problems, works effectively with cross-functional teams, can work independently with minimal supervision or direction, and thrives in a fast paced setting that is constantly evolving.

About The Role

The RALIANCE Director will be responsible for conceptualizing and implementing business strategy, including initiating and supporting the negotiation and execution of business development transactions for corporate enterprises. The Director will develop processes and procedures for RALIANCE activities, facilitate communication among RALIANCE staff; develop a pool of consultants to expand capacity; and serve as the primary liaison with corporate and other clients.

About RALIANCE

RALIANCE is a collaboration among three leading national organizations committed to ending sexual violence in one generation. We make prevention possible helping leaders across a wide range of organizations and institutions establish environments that are free from sexual harassment, misconduct and abuse, and by advancing research, influencing policy and supporting innovative programs. Visit us at www.RALIANCE.org for more information. The position will be hired by the Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape/National Sexual Violence Resource Center, who serves as the fiscal sponsor for RALIANCE. The position is based in Washington DC.

Values Statement

PCAR and RALIANCE understand sexual violence as a social justice issue and works to prevent and respond to sexual violence within this framework. We are committed to nurturing a workplace that is affirming, inclusive, and respectful of all people and the ways in which they identify across race, class, ability, gender, sexual orientation, age, and other characteristics.
